Dear Sir,

I have rec'd your favour accompanied by your invaluable work as a present, "Experiments & observations on the Gastric juice & Physiology of digestion"

I have read a portion of this Book, including the interesting case which gave rise to your experiments & of course the Book. I return you my sincere thanks for the Book, & it shall be retained as a memorial of the obligation I am under to you for this kindness. Truly sincerely, Yours — R. A. Johnson
