St Louis

D<sup>r</sup> Johnson.

March 16. 1849

Dear Sir.

Yrs in reply to mine of yesterday. is before me.

You still declining to show me your accounts to prevent us from settling the matter between ourselves.

And understanding you the other day to have named Captain Kingsbury as mutual friend to act as referee on your part. I named Mr Polk, with the same view on my part - But, by your note of this morning. that appears not to be your understanding of the case.

I therefore now propose to leave out the Lawyers & refer it to Mr Kingsbury & Mr Dickson. and abide their decision. ~~and~~ they to to select a third in case of their disagreement

Respectfully

Wm Beaumont
