Wilkes Barre Sept 1 1836

Dr Cours

Allow me to make your acquaintance with my friend and neighbor Dr Charles Steater, whom you will find to be an amiable interesting and intelligent man entitled to your kindest civilities. He proposes to pass thro' the Great West, and I know of no one to whose attention I could commend him with more confidence and freedom than you dear good self. Be kind enough also to make his acquaintance with Dr Lynn who I am sure will take a pleasure in extending the abilities due to a deserving stranger. My family are well my own health and spirits pretty tolerable. Why have you not written to me last winter? I shall expect to hear from you soon. With the best wishes for the health & welfare of yourself & family

Your Cousin & friend
