WEDDING BELLS

PAULINE SMILOVICH, Credit, appeared to be limping into work recently. Oh, we understand you danced the polka all night at the steady beau’s sister’s wedding.

We offer best wishes to BARBARA WRIGHT, W.U Clinics record room. She is now Mrs. Clifford Proffer, a teacher’s wife.

RUTH STEIN, nurse, started the New Year right by announcing future wedding plans.

A little late in the news, but still in that honeymoon atmosphere are DIXIE REE HALL, Attendant, and GARNETT BROOKS, Orderly, married December 24.

JAN BEAUBIEN, Accounting Office, has changed her diamond from the third finger, right hand, to the third left. Who’s the lucky man, Jan?

Winding up the week with a new matrimonial bond, MARCELLA WHITTAKER will be married on Fri., January 23.

FAREWELL TO BARNES

Here’s hoping we see these old friends back for a visit often

BOBBIE MCKIDDY, Drug store
GRACE KOVACIK, McMillan C
PAT FITZGERALD, Pharmacy
IRENE FISCHER, Nursing

ILLENESSES

No one socked JANE McGUIRE, McMillan Admitting. She had a tooth pulled.

We are sorry to hear about PEGGY PROCTOR’s father. She is on leave of absence from McMillan Doctors’ Office.

LOUENVIA DUCKETT, Maid, was confined to sedentary life for a week due to a sprained ankle.

LOIS EZELL is being waited on by fellow employees over at McMillan Hospital, where she is recuperating from an eye operation. She also has a very important visitor in town to wish her a speedy recovery.
THOSE WHO GET ABOUT

MARIAN SIZELOVE, Dietitian, adopted a becoming hairdo just before making her trip to Columbia, Mo. for the weekend.

Dr. F. R. Bradley took a quick turn up to New York to attend a Nursing Conference which planned the agenda for an Institute on Nursing to be given by the American Hospital Association.

BETTY KIRCHNER, Clinic Record Room, will be leaving shortly for Florida to attain one of those envious sun tans.

Many surprise parties have been evident in the hospital. A surprise party for JESSIE LITTLE and MAGNOLIA TRAINER on Saturday January 10th by the maids in the housekeeping department. MISS HUEY arranged a surprise dinner for Mrs. L. THOMPSON, who has been with the Admitting Office at Maternity for about five years. Mrs. Thompson resigned to be married. LILLIAN REDMAN, McMillan Attendant, was honored by her fellow employees with a birthday party. My, we are full of surprises! Last but not least, Miss RETHA MAHONE was given a birthday celebration by the maid, MRS. GEORGIA LEWIS. Those girls working in the evening were invited. Gifts galore! Our best wishes to HORTENSE PRYOR who missed the party because of illness.

What could be a more opportune birthday present for MABEL GANSZ tomorrow than a place to live. Specifications - one room, a kitchen and quiet neighbors.

Welcome back FREDDY ENO, orderly. Those in the O. R. are glad to see you back on the staff.

FRED VEEDER, hospital administrative assistant, has been assigned to study the duties of the laboratory personnel. Who knows he may decide to change positions.

VERY SMALL NOTE: MRS. ESSON would like a door to her office!

Income tax troubles have brought new improvements to the accounting office. The IBM section is now in a sound proof room.

ARE YOU ABLE TO SEE THIS CLEARLY? MAYBE YOU LOST YOUR GLASSES. There were a pair found in the cafeteria a few days ago. Inquire at the personnel office.

We asked the drug store employees some news and views. They sighed only this - Golly, we're busy.
