Greetings

The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ten of the Department of Arts and Sciences presents herewith the Seventh Annual 'Year Book of Washington University. The purpose of the volume is to record the progress of the University, and to reflect its life and happenings. The year has been a worthy addition to Washington's history; it marks a new epoch of growth, in outward influence, in inner strength and unity, and above all in loyalty to Washington.

In the hope that this book may contribute its small share in this great advance, we greet our Alma Mater.
