Greeting

Dear Reader, when Time has tinged your hair with gray, And furrowed your fair cheek with care, Think once again of days that are past, Days that were bright and free as air.

Look, then, within the pages of this book, See there the faces of your college friends, Read of events and deeds of yesterday; Remember them until life's pleasure ends.

M. H. W.
William Samuel Curtis

To William Samuel Curtis, Dean of the Faculty of the Law School, who has devoted his energies for a quarter of a century to the building of a "Greater Washington," this book is gratefully dedicated.

Born in 1850 in Wayne County, Indiana, Mr. Curtis received his preparatory education at various Illinois schools, and then graduated from Washington University with the degrees of A. B. and LL. B. in 1873 and 1876 respectively. Mr. Curtis then taught in Smith Academy of Washington University. For ten years he served the best interests of the Institution and then moved to Omaha where he remained in the practice of law until 1894. During the latter part of his residence in that city, he was one of the trustees of the Public Library, a work which has helped him considerably in building up the library of the Law School. In 1894, he returned to St. Louis to again serve our Alma Mater, this time as Dean of the Law School, a position which he has held ever since. Under his able direction, the Law School has made such progress that it now ranks with the foremost in the country. The University recognized his achievements by conferring the degree of LL. D. in 1905. Mr. Curtis, ably assisted by his wife, has been a potent factor in creating a spirit of closer intimacy between the faculty and the students.

To this able, courageous and gifted patron of learning and devoted friend of our Alma Mater, this volume is respectfully dedicated by the Class of 1914.
DEAR ALMA MATER, THY NAME IS SWEET TO ME,
OUR HEARTS ARE ALL FOR THEE, FAIR WASHINGTON.
THY HALLS SHALL HONORED BE, THROUGHOUT THIS GREAT COUNTRY,
FOR ALL ETERNITY, OUR WASHINGTON.

THOSE DAYS OF YOUTH WHICH ALL OF US SPENT WITH THEE
FORM A DEAR HISTORY, FAIR WASHINGTON.
COULD THEY RENEWED BE, WE'D LIVE OUR DAYS WITH THEE,
