Fourteenth Volume

CLASS of 1917

ST. LOUIS — 1916
FOREWORD

Restless activity without a guiding purpose is merely turmoil. Let those who read this record of a year of student enterprise look beyond the written word and the description of apparently disconnected events to the high ideal of unselfish devotion to the welfare of the University which gives them unity.

Alexander D. Langdon
To
Alexander Suss Langsdorf, M. M. E., Dean of the Schools of Engineering and Architecture, this Fourteenth Volume of The Hatchet is Dedicated in Respectful Recognition of His Eminent Services to Science, and as a Testimonial of the Esteem of the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen.
During the Many Years of His Connection with Washington, the Best Interests of His Students, and the Welfare of the University Have been His Closest Concern, and it is Largely due to His Efforts that the Departments Under His Charge Have Attained Their Present High Position.
