Green Bay, Oct. 23. 1849

Dear Dear

Your of the 29. Sept. was del. by me. also the letter for Mr Martin which was handed him. without delay I called on him last Friday. he then had not considered upon the subject. sufficient to answer your proposition. he was to be absent a few days, on his return he will then give you his views in the matter

Mr Martin I believe has the control of the business. & will be liberal with you.

Mr Baird & others. has compromised with him upon easy terms - we are displeas'd at the safe return of Israel. he is a fine fellow and can truly bear testimony to ^{his} manly & good deportment whilst here. we were most glad to have him with us. The Washington House is cooking up. we are doing all that we can with the limited means we have. I have Herman Cady with me. he is very useful is a stevedore. & takes an interest in the business take us both together - I think we can keep a fair house. we have our full share of the gentle visitors - we are all well & take send them love to all of your family. Next June we shall expect to see you all but W. M. M. out Yours truly Thos Green
