Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater,
Thy name is sweet to me,
Our hearts are all for thee,
Fair Washington.

Thy halls shall honored be,
Throughout this great country
For all eternity,
Our Washington.

Those days of youth which
All of us spent with thee
Form a dear history,
Fair Washington.

Could they renewed be,
We'd live our days with thee,
For all eternity,
Our Washington.

The Junior Prom

BENEATH a clear blue, star-sprinkled sky, with the moon shining down its approval, Miss Viola McCullen, vice-president of the class of 1921, was announced the Hatchet Queen for 1921 at the Junior Prom on the night of March 12 and was presented with a large bouquet of roses as she sat on her throne surrounded by the excited dancers.

It was indeed a beautiful picture that was revealed to the eye as the curtains were drawn back from the throne and the spotlight flooded the dais where Miss McCullen was seated, with the three other candidates, Misses Mildred Petring, Isabelle Runk and Gayle Anderson, standing as her attendants.

Miss McCullen was gowned in a gorgeous French model of white taffeta with a bodice of taffeta and sapphire blue sequins and a skirt with bewitching bouffant paniers. The effect was very queenly.

Miss Petring's gown was of shadow lawn green charmeuse, with the new French collar and a harem skirt. She carried an apricot feather fan.

Miss Runk wore an orchid satin creation trimmed with silver and beautifully draped from the shoulders in the back.

Francis Gym was transformed for the occasion into a setting which made it a ballroom well worthy of the climax of the University social year. The decorations were in purple and gold with vari-colored lights throwing their glow out from the sides so as to aid the starlit sky in producing the effect of a perfect June evening silvered by the moonlight.

From the balcony the effect was more than gorgeous as the spotlight played upon one couple and then another, revealing dashes of color of almost as many variations as the number of feminine dancers.

The guests of the Junior Class who acted as chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McCullen, Dr. and Mrs. Rider, Dr. and Mrs. Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus Conzelman, Miss Edith Fenton, Dr. and Mrs. Shipley, and Dr. Francis Walker.

Commerce and Finance Building

ork on the erection of the building for the School of Commerce and Finance will begin early this summer, as soon as the vacation period begins. It will be completed by Christmas, and ready for occupancy at the beginning of the second semester next year, contractors have announced.

The new building has been donated to Washington University by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Duncker of Brentmoor Park, in remembrance of their son, Capt. Charles H. Duncker, Jr., ’14, who was killed in France. Henry P. Duncker, ’19, brother of Capt. Duncker, was the first graduate of the School of Commerce and Finance.

The new building, to be named the Charles H. Duncker, Jr., Hall of Commerce and Finance, will occupy the northwest corner of the first Quadrangle, and will extend on the eastern extremity to the Sophomore wall, which lies between Cupples I and Ridgley Library.
