WOMEN'S ATHLETICS
COACHES

Miss Kate R. Williams, director of women's athletic and gymnastic work, has this year further effected the careful organization of the physical education department. Not only has the routine of gymnasium classes been thoroughly systematized, but the management of the various sports has been made more efficient. The opportunity of electing sports or swimming in the place of floor work was again offered to gymnasium classes. Examinations on the rules of the sports, compulsory to all team aspirants except the "W" wearers, proved an efficient method of finding the most capable girls for places on the teams.

Tangible results of Miss Williams' leadership are shown in the greatly increased numbers of girls who have taken an interest in athletics this year. Just as important, however, although harder to define, are the intangible results—the spirit of camaraderie and good will on the sport field, and the friendliness existing between instructors and pupils.

The work of Miss Elizabeth W. Childs, assistant director of women's physical education, is another reason for the increased efficiency of that department. Miss Childs is an able dancing instructor, a good coach, and a capable referee, and yet at the same time she is regarded by the teams as a mascot.

This is the third year that Miss Williams and Miss Childs have been at Washington. Both have been elected as honorary members of Peppers, Cleats, and Sigma Lambda Epsilon, the women's athletic fraternity.
