Dear Sir,

~~to you a letter~~ On the 24th of Aug^t. I mailed to you a letter enclosing a Dft on New York for $100 dollars for Alexis St Martin and at the same time wrote him accepting and affirming his proposal of coming to me & but have not yet heard any thing from either on the subject.

The circumstance of his non arrival and not having from you by mail, excites some anxiety and creates doubts in my mind whether my communications have been rec^d. and hence this letter on the subject - your prompt reply to this will relieve much anxiety and solicitude of Your respectful

friend & ob^l Serv^t
Wm B. Beaman
