To Dr. Beaumont

F. 13

Dear Sir.

I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your Book of Experiments with much satisfaction. Allow me to express to you the obligations I am under to you not only for the present of this valuable Book but also for your medical advice, which has been of essential service to my disordered functions.

I am sure

"your" "experiments" must be a great addition to the practical science of Medicine. ^{will} come eventually to dispel the many wonderful hypotheses about that wonderful organ of the human system, the Stomach.

I truly hope

you may realize your full expectations in heading the well beaten road of authorship & this Book may not be the last that shall see the light from your pen.

I anticipate much pleasure in reading your "experiments," and presume you have already found no small pleasure in completing the publication of them.

I am dear Sir

Yours with much esteem

M Chase
