Dear Sir,

Martinsburg
Dec. 31.

F. 3

I thank you for the work you have performed. It is no less precious than valuable. By your skillful management of a more desperate wound, you have <sup>been</sup> enabled to reveal some of the most important functions of the human system. And I sincerely trust, that your useful and disinterested labor may add to your professional character and advancement.

Respectfully,
Your obedient Son

J. Beaumont.
