JH MATCHED 100% BY INTERN PLAN

For the third consecutive year, Jewish Hospital matched 100% on interns sought under the National Intern Matching Plan.

(The N.I.M.P. is the central “clearing house” to which hospitals make known their intern needs and senior students from accredited medical schools express their preference for training.)

The new 18-member House Staff—an increase of two over 1957—will begin their duties on July 1.

In St. Louis, the Jewish Hospital was one of three who completely filled their quota. Other hospitals in St. Louis matched 41%, and for Missouri, 40% success was reported. In the United States as a whole, 11,958 internships were reported available, with only 6,734 or 56% of these filled.

A number of social events have been planned for the new staff by the present House Staff.

ALBERT EISENSTEIN NEW DIRECTOR OF MEDICINE

Albert B. Eisenstein, M.D., has been appointed Director of the Division of Medicine, effective July 1, 1958, succeeding Dr. Sol Sherry, who is assuming a position as Professor of Medicine at Washington University School of Medicine.

Dr. Eisenstein attended the University of Missouri and Washington University School of Medicine, receiving his M.D. degree from W. U. in 1944. Following an internship at JH, he served as a Captain with the U. S. Army, after which he returned to practice and teaching in St. Louis.

He is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and since 1951 has been Assistant Professor of Preventive Medicine and Medicine at Washington University School of Medicine. His professional affiliations include the Endocrine Society, American Association for the Advancement of Research, American Federation for Clinical Research and the Association of Teachers of Preventive Medicine.

Since 1951, Dr. Eisenstein has been active in numerous research areas and has authored several important papers on endocrinology. His major research study involves nutritional factors and the secretion of adrenocortical hormones.

As Director of the Division of Medicine, Dr. Eisenstein will assume responsibility for its programs of education and clinical research, for administration of the Division, and for professional jurisdiction over the ward and private services.

Dr. Eisenstein resides in Clayton with his wife, Barbara, and their five children, Robert, Sylvia, Lesley, James, and Richard.

RICHARD K. WEIL HONORED

Mr. Richard K. Weil (left), retiring President of JH, and Mr. John M. Shoenberg, newly-elected President, at the Testimonial Dinner given by the Board of Directors in Mr. Weil's honor on March 11 in the Auditorium of the Mark C. Steinberg Memorial. Mr. Shoenberg is shown presenting a miniature of a plaque placed in the Hospital's main lobby, recognizing Mr. Weil's dedication and leadership during his term of office. In his remarks, Mr. Shoenberg noted that "... Today, after 4 years under the Presidency of Richard Weil, the Jewish Hospital is a functioning 500-bed institution ranking among the top hospitals in America."

JEWISH WELFARE FUND DRIVE NOW UNDER WAY

Dr. David Littauer, Executive Director, has appointed Mrs. Sophia Rosenkranz, Director of Volunteer Services, as Chairman of the 1958 Jewish Welfare Fund Drive to be conducted at JH throughout the months of April and May. The campaign has a total goal of $1,951,408 this year—$1,551,408 for the Welfare Fund and $400,000 for the United Jewish Appeal Rescue Fund.

The Jewish Federation each year contributes over $350,000 to the Jewish Hospital—for the maintenance of an educational program for interns, residents, and fellows; for deficit-financing of in-patient and out-patient programs; for that portion of the Chronic Disease Division budget not covered by the United Fund; and in complete support of the Home Care Program.

Mrs. Rosenkranz announced that she was selecting a working committee and team captains to assist her with the Hospital's drive. In a statement, she said:

"The Jewish Federation drive is your drive. Because each of us has a real stake in its success, our goal is no less than 100%.

"Every department at our Hospital—and therefore every employee and associate—depends either directly or indirectly on Federation assistance. In fact, the Jewish Hospital benefits financially far in excess of our contribution to the Federation Welfare Fund drive. I think our obligation is clear."

UNITED FUND ALLOCATION CUT 8.6%; JH PUTS SQUEEZE ON WASTE

At a special Departmental Conference, Dr. David Littauer, Executive Director, and Mr. Paul R. Wozniak, Associate Director, Fiscal Services, announced a $22,362 cut in the 1958 United Fund allocation to the Hospital. In 1957, the United Fund allocated $256,578 to JH to assist in-patient and out-patient services as well as programs in Social Service, Chronic Disease and Rehabilitation. The 8.6% cut from its 1957 allocation mirrors the overall reduction the Fund had to make when its own goal of $8,598,842 was missed by $438,033.

The announcement spurred new efforts among Hospital personnel and staff to reduce waste and inefficiency.

Everyone was urged to be on the lookout for such wasteful practices as:

—Lights on in unoccupied rooms (JH's electricity bill is about $48,000 per year!)

—Wide open windows during cold weather (Heating costs reached $50,000 last year!)

—Unnecessary use of telephones, inefficient use of extensions (JH telephone costs average $75,000 per year!)

—Water wastage (Water costs JH $6,000 per year!)

—Overstocking and waste of expendable supplies (paper, forms, dressings, small instruments, etc.)

—Inefficient personnel practices (Unexcused absenteeism and tardiness, over-long "coffee breaks," loafing, etc.)

—Waste of food (JH raw food costs came to $325,000 last year!)

Dr. Littauer reminded the department heads of the Hospital's responsibility to offer the St. Louis community the finest patient care at the fairest cost.

"216"
Almost 200 junior and senior high school students interested in professional nursing careers attended the "NURSE FOR A DAY" program held at the Hospital on March 1. Under the direction of Miss Edna E. Peterson, Director of the School of Nursing and Nursing Service, the event was especially prepared by the faculty and students to acquaint young women with the actual courses of study, daily routine, and social life offered in the School.

Following registration, the girls were served a buffet luncheon (above, left). A tour of the School's facilities began with an inspection of a typical nurse's room (above, right). Also included on the tour of the residence were the classrooms, laboratories, and library. The girls were then escorted through several professional and non-professional departments of the Hospital itself, including a variety of demonstrations on patient care. One of the most popular parts of the tour was the visits to the Delivery and Operating Suites. A "Coke break" later in the afternoon afforded guests an opportunity to meet and talk with student nurses presently enrolled in the School. A dinner and floor show in the Steinberg Auditorium concluded the day's activities. "NURSE FOR A DAY" was planned to present a clearer understanding of the qualifications and training involved in a professional nursing career and in the hope of interesting more young women to choose nursing as their career.

STUDENT NURSES CAPPED

Seventy-three students who satisfactorily completed their six month pre-clinical training period received caps at the traditional Capping Ceremony of the Jewish Hospital School of Nursing, class of 1960, held on February 13 in the Moses Shoenberg Memorial.

The ceremony was conducted by the Student Council of the School of Nursing. Mr. John M. Shoenberg, President of the Hospital, and Dr. David Littauer, Executive Director, extended greetings to the students and their guests, and Miss Edna E. Peterson, Director of the School of Nursing and Nursing Service made the formal presentation of caps. The Nurses Choir, under the direction of Mr. Alvin Burmeister, offered a musical program.

As part of the exercises, Mrs. Sydney M. Shoenberg, Jr., presented the three Franc Honor Awards. The first award, a $100.00 bond to the student who has shown evidence of outstanding scholastic ability, was presented to Miss Judith Ann Butler. Miss Carol M. Horst received honorable mention for this award. Two awards of $25.00 each were presented to Miss Shirley Ann Hartman for outstanding kindness and consideration of patients, and to Miss Sylvia Ann Henley for outstanding interest and participation in student activities.

A reception was held in Steinberg Auditorium following the ceremony for students and their parents.

EMPLOYEE RECREATION PROGRAM STARTS

Announcement has been made by Mr. Edwin D. Andrews, Personnel Director, of the organization of a recreation program for JH employees.

Questionnaires were distributed to all Hospital employees to determine the degree of interest in various athletic and hobby activities. Survey results indicated a high percentage of employees interested in the establishment of such program, with approximately thirty-five various activities suggested. Ranking highest in popularity were bowling, arts and crafts, bridge, tennis, and horseback riding. Other recreations offered include golf, photography, stamp collecting, square dancing, chess, baseball, handball, and basketball.

Several employees have volunteered to serve as instructors in some of the sports being planned, and the services of others will be welcomed.

Organization of the individual teams and clubs will begin soon. Invitations to participate will be extended to all employees, including those not previously expressing interest in the program.
