Dear Sir,

I have rec<sup>d</sup> your favour accompanied by your invaluable work as a present, "Experiments & observations on the gastric juice & Physiology of digestion".

I have read a portion of this Book, including the extraordinary case which gave rise to your Experiments & of course the Book. I return you my sincere thanks for the Book, & it shall be retained as a memorial of the obligation I am under to you for this kindness. Truly sincerely,

Yours

Ph. M. Johnson
