Essential Nursing Resources
Edited by Janet G. Schnall, MS and Susan Fowler, MLIS for the Interagency Council on Information Resources in Nursing

The 26th edition of the ICIRN Essential Nursing Resources (ENR) list is presented as a resource for locating nursing information and for collection development. The list includes print, electronic, and web sources to support nursing practice, education, administration, and research activities. Only the most recent editions and website addresses have been included. The list was compiled to point to pathways for exploration, rather than be an end point, and to expand to other formats beyond traditional references. New and redesigned sections in this edition include Blogs, Forums and Discussion Lists; Evidence-based Nursing; Management; Patient Safety/Quality Assurance; and Toxicology, Environmental, Occupational Health. See the Key below for the indication of the format of the resource and its availability via mobile, online or print.

The following representatives of the Interagency Council on Information Resources in Nursing (ICIRN) member agencies contributed to the compilation of this edition of the ENR: Richard Barry, Linda Bell, Susan Fowler, Warren G. Hawkes, Gertrude Hutchinson, Suzanne Hermann, Susan Pierce, Diane Pravikoff, Juliette Ratner, Janet G. Schnall, and Annelle Tanner. Essential Nursing Resources is accessed at the ICIRN website, along with more information about ICIRN: www.icirn.org.

DATABASES

Access to specialized databases is available from academic, hospital, and other libraries, including libraries that are members of the National Network of Libraries of Medicine (NN/LM), http://nnlm.gov. Users can typically access these databases via library website or directly from vendor. Contact local health sciences libraries or closest Regional Medical Library (800.388.7657) for assistance. For access to US National Library of Medicine (NLM) databases, check the NLM website at http://nlm.nih.gov/databases/. Full-text online journal collections and bundled resources of databases/online scholarly journals/magazines/multimedia/evidence syntheses require librarian expertise to manage; representative collections are listed here. Obtain full text articles — both print and online — via libraries, professional memberships, personal subscriptions, and some websites.

Core Nursing and Health Care Databases

CINAHL EBSCO. The Cumulative Index of Nursing and Allied Health Literature covers nursing, biomedicine, alternative/complementary medicine, consumer health, health sciences librarianship, and 17 allied health disciplines. Provides indexing for >4,660 journals; contains >2.8 million records dating back to 1937, with complete coverage of English-language journals and publications from the National League for Nursing and the American Nurses Association. Also offers access to health care books, book chapters, ebooks, pamphlets, nursing dissertations, selected conference proceedings, standards of practice, education software, audiovisuals, and CE (continuing education) modules. Full-text material includes 770 journals, clinical innovations, critical paths, research instruments, Evidence-Based Care Sheets, Quick Lessons, and clinical trials. More than 1,350 indexed journals in CINAHL have searchable cited references; subject access available via CINAHL Subject Heading List. The CINAHL database covers 2,999 journals.
