Good reading

$1 million pledged to library system

A $1 million commitment to Washington University, in conjunction with the ALLIANCE FOR WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY, a $300 million fund-raising campaign, has been announced by Chancellor William H. Danforth.

The commitment was made by Carl Neureuther, a 1940 graduate of Washington University, for the University's library system to encourage and stimulate good reading by Washington University, in conjunction with the ALLIANCE FOR WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY Libraries.

Continued on p. 2

The double bill will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday through Sunday, April 23-26, in the University's auditorium. A matinee will be presented at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, April 25-26.

"Komachi," based on the life and works of the ninth-century Japanese poet, is a combination of storytelling, dance, acting and music. The free program, which runs for a fee, a series of remarkable spectacles. Music for both productions is provided by Jeffrey Noonan, a member of the HRRC.

Tickets are $5 to the general public and $3.50 for students and KWU Studio Set members. They are on sale at Paul's Books (6091 Delmar), Left Bank Books (390 N. Euclid) and in the University's Performing Arts Department office (Room 315, Mallinckrodt Center). For more information, call the Holy Roman Hotline at 569-8006.

"Komachi" is made possible in part by grants from the Missouri Arts Council and the CAMELOT Fund of the Arts and Education Council of Greater St. Louis.

The double bill will be featured in the family in year 2000 program topic "The American Family — Year 2000" will be discussed by a panel of six experts in the fields of government, medicine, media, mental health, ethics/religion and computer science during a daylong program on Friday, April 24, in the business school's John E. Simon Hall Auditorium.

The program marks the 10th anniversary of The Morris Wormitan Institute on Marriage and Family Education sponsored by the George Warren Brown School of Social Work at Washington University.

The free program, which runs from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., is designed for professionals in mental health settings, schools and family service agencies. The panel of experts will lecture on the impact that community institutions will have on family in the near future.

The panels and their presentation topics are: Al Kemp, regional director, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Region VII, "Youth, Year 2000 Initiative"; Kathleen McVoy, director, Office of Marriage and Family Services, Menninger Foundation, "Family"; Dennis Klass, chairperson, Department of Religion, Webster University, "Values and Ethics"; William Miller, executive director, American Red Cross, "Health Care"; Robert House, director, Educational Computing Services, Washington University, "High Tech"; and Anne Keefe, KMUX radio personality, "The Media's Effect on the Family Today and in the Future.

Barry Shapiro, clinical associate, artist-in-residence at the University and a founding member of the HRRC.

The Wonder Show" is directed by Huston and Tom Jaeger, a Washington University performing arts major. The play is Cervantes' tale of a theatrical manager who comes to a sleepy Spanish town and promises, for a fee, a series of remarkable spectacles. Music for both productions is provided by Jeffrey Noonan, a member of the HRRC.

Tickets are $5 to the general public and $3.50 for students and KWU Studio Set members. They are on sale at Paul's Books (6091 Delmar), Left Bank Books (390 N. Euclid) and in the University's Performing Arts Department office (Room 315, Mallinckrodt Center). For more information, call the Holy Roman Hotline at 569-8006.

"Komachi" is made possible in part by grants from the Missouri Arts Council and the CAMELOT Fund of the Arts and Education Council of Greater St. Louis.

for 10 years, where he received a doctorate in music in 1981.

Metz also will present the recital this coming May at the Fenton House in London, England.

Tickets for the concert at The Sheldon are $4 at the door. For more information, call 889-5574.

The Department of Economics has established a memorial fund to honor Harold Barnett's teaching and research activities. Dr. Barnett, professor emeritus in economics at Washington University, died Feb. 11, 1987. He joined the University faculty in 1965 as professor and chairman of the economics department.

Contributions to the fund should be made payable to Washington University and sent to: Chairman, Barnett Memorial Fund, c/o Department of Economics, Washington University, Campus Box 1208, One Brookings Drive, St. Louis, MO 63130.

A memorial service was held for Dr. Barnett on April 6 in Steinberg Auditorium.
Deirdre Boden, Ph.D., assistant professor of sociology, gave an in- vited lecture titled "Organizations in Action: Time, Talk, and the 'Enacted Environment'" at Cornell University. While the East Coast, where the lecture was presented in the Discourse Analysis Semi- nar at M.I.T. as the guest of Hayward Alker, is the Department of Political Science.

Warren T. Brinckworth, a practi- cum instructor at the George Warren Brown School of Social Work, and five students from the school have created a sociodrama concerning the homeless in the United States. The five students are Maria Laskey, Childress, Lori Ahrens, Peggy Duffield, Lori McClain and Sara Zutavern. They will present their work at the 16th Annual Conference on "Changing Emphases and New Developments in Psychotherapy," in Contemporary French Civiliza- tion; and the "Forward" to Shazo Kuki and Jean-Paul Sartre.

John Schael, director of athletics, is one of eight new members elected to the 15-member National Collegiate Athletic Association, a group that acts as one body to deal with matters of overall NCAA policy and interdivision interests. Schael, whose four-year term will end in January 1987, will serve as a Division III represent- ative. Prior to becoming a member of the council, Schael serv- ed on the NCAA Classification Com- mittee from 1983 to 1986.

Barbara R. Cole, M.D., applications. She served on the American Heart Association's Committee on "Changing Emphases and New Developments in Psychotherapy," in Contemporary French Civiliza- tion; and the "Forward" to Shazo Kuki and Jean-Paul Sartre.

John Schael, director of athletics, is one of eight new members elected to the 15-member National Collegiate Athletic Association, a group that acts as one body to deal with matters of overall NCAA policy and interdivision interests. Schael, whose four-year term will end in January 1987, will serve as a Division III represent- ative. Prior to becoming a member of the council, Schael serv- ed on the NCAA Classification Com- mittee from 1983 to 1986.

Paul Nizon and Hans-Peter Bayedor- fer have been appointed visiting pro- fessors at Washington University's Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures. They will be teaching and teaching on campus until April 24.

Robert L. Thorp, Ph.D., associate professor of German, describes Nizon as "one of the most prominent contemporary writers in the German language." Nison, Max Kade writer-in- residence, has received many of the most prestigious literary prizes for his many novels, among them Cantos (1963), Im Haus enden die Geschichten (1971), Stolz (1975), Das Jahr der Liebe (1981), and Arbeiten gehen (1985). He also has published a collection of Vincent van Gogh's letters and essays on Swiss art. During the last 20 years, Nizon teaches a graduate seminar on contemporary German writers. A native of Berne, Switzerland, he received a doctorate in art history. He lives in Paris, France.

Gerhard Scholz Williams, Ph.D., associate professor of German, describes Nizon as "one of the most prominent contemporary writers in the German language." Nison, Max Kade writer-in- residence, has received many of the most prestigious literary prizes for his many novels, among them Cantos (1963), Im Haus enden die Geschichten (1971), Stolz (1975), Das Jahr der Liebe (1981), and Arbeiten gehen (1985). He also has published a collection of Vincent van Michelle Rybalka, Ph.D., professor of French, gave a talk on "Sartre With Simone de Beauvoir" during a Sartre colloquium at Harvard University and then he lectured on "Les Vian: du gastronome " on New York Universi- ty. Rybalka contributed a paper on the "La genetique litteree" at the Interna- tional Colloquium on the French New Novel. "Michel de Certeau, Francois Chate- let," in Contemporary French Civiliza- tion; and the "Forward" to Shazo Kuki and Jean-Paul Sartre.

Joel H. Tokarz, LL.M., professor of law, is director of the clinical education program.

John Schael, director of athletics, is one of eight new members elected to the 15-member National Collegiate Athletic Association, a group that acts as one body to deal with matters of overall NCAA policy and interdivision interests. Schael, whose four-year term will end in January 1987, will serve as a Division III represent- ative. Prior to becoming a member of the council, Schael serv- ed on the NCAA Classification Com- mittee from 1983 to 1986.

Martha Storandt, Ph.D., professor of psychology and neurology, was named to a committee or elected an of- ficer of a professional organization. The American College of Trial Lawyers established the annual Emil Gumpert Award for Excellence in Teaching. The award carries a grant of $25,000.

According to an American Col- lege of Trial Lawyers' report, "Washington University has exceptional pro- grams to further lawyering skills. The school is second to none in its Client Counseling, Mock Court and Mock Trial Competition programs. The success of the Washington Uni- versity teams speaks for itself." Karen L. Tokarz, LL.M., professor of law, is director of the clinical education program.

In 1983 and 1986, the law school captured first place at the Na- tional Mock Trial Competition. In ad- dition to securing the national titles, the school captured the best oral advoca- tion and both of those years. Washington has won the regional mock trial competition for the last seven years.

Washington's client counseling team won the National Client Coun- seling Championship in 1986 and then won the first International Client Counseling Championship, where the students competed with teams from Canada and Great Britain.

The American College of Trial Lawyers established the annual Emil Gumpert Award for Excellence in Teaching. The award carries a grant of $25,000.

According to an American Col- lege of Trial Lawyers' report, "Washington University has exceptional pro- grams to further lawyering skills. The school is second to none in its Client Counseling, Mock Court and Mock Trial Competition programs. The success of the Washington Uni- versity teams speaks for itself." Karen L. Tokarz, LL.M., professor of law, is director of the clinical education program.

In 1983 and 1986, the law school captured first place at the Na- tional Mock Trial Competition. In ad- dition to securing the national titles, the school captured the best oral advoca- tion and both of those years. Washington has won the regional mock trial competition for the last seven years.

Washington's client counseling team won the National Client Coun- seling Championship in 1986 and then won the first International Client Counseling Championship, where the students competed with teams from Canada and Great Britain.

The American College of Trial Lawyers established the annual Emil Gumpert Award for Excellence in Teaching. The award carries a grant of $25,000.

According to an American Col- lege of Trial Lawyers' report, "Washington University has exceptional pro- grams to further lawyering skills. The school is second to none in its Client Counseling, Mock Court and Mock Trial Competition programs. The success of the Washington Uni- versity teams speaks for itself." Karen L. Tokarz, LL.M., professor of law, is director of the clinical education program.

In 1983 and 1986, the law school captured first place at the Na- tional Mock Trial Competition. In ad- dition to securing the national titles, the school captured the best oral advoca- tion and both of those years. Washington has won the regional mock trial competition for the last seven years.

Washington's client counseling team won the National Client Coun- seling Championship in 1986 and then won the first International Client Counseling Championship, where the students competed with teams from Canada and Great Britain.
4 p.m. Estelle Bromberg Lecture, "Towards a Unified Medical Language System." Donald A.B. Laming, 199th Chair. 102 Eads.
Friday, April 17 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. 5th Annual Construction Management Center Seminar, "Sure Laws. Insurance. Liability and the Construction Industry." The cost is $150 which includes lunch. Registration is required by April 16. To register, call 568-6400.
Friday, April 24 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m. The Morris Wortman Memorial Institute on Marriage and Family Education. The American Family - Year 2000, Simon Hall Aud. For more info., call 889-6606.
4 p.m. Dept. of Philosophy Colloquium, "Miller's Qualitative Theory of the Measure of Pleasure." Chris Hoffman, WA. doctoral cand. 21st Burch.
Friday, April 25 7 p.m. Student Dance Concert. Wagner House. For more info., call 889-4523.
Saturday, April 25 7 p.m. "Dithyramb (. . . Exalted Theme of theamy)." a concert of new electronic music compositions of the electronic music studio. Program includes laser and slide projections, live performance and tape media. Tiergarten Rehearsal Hall.
EXHIBITIONS
Thursday, April 16 "Published! One Hundred First Books." An exhibit of first books by highly regarded British and American authors, drawn from the University Libraries' collection of literature. Through April 30. Special Collections, Old Library. Level 5. 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays. For more info., call 889-4523.
Thursday, April 23 "Leslie Laskey Retrospective." Through April 26, Gallery of Art. lower gallery. 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays. 1-5 p.m. weekends. For more info., call 889-4523.
Friday, April 24 "Stanley Tanker Retrospective Exhibition With New Works," paintings by WA. professor Emeritus. Through April 26. Bixby Gallery. Bishy Hall. 10 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays. 1-5 p.m. weekends.
Sunday, April 26 "Seniors 87," photographs exhibit of students in the School of Fine Arts taken by third year students in Herb Weinman's photography class. Bishy Hall. lower levell. Weekdays, 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
FILMS
Thursday, April 16 7 and 9 p.m. WU Filmboard Series, "Ballad of a Soldier." F2 Brown Hall.
Friday, April 17 7 p.m. "Annie Hall." F2 Brown Hall. (Also Sat., April 18, same time, and Sun., April 19, at 8 p.m. Brown.)
7 p.m. WU Filmboard Series, "Hot Girl Friday." F2 Brown Hall. (Also Tues., April 21, same time, Brown.)
Monday, April 20 7 and 9 p.m. WU Filmboard Series, "The Gods Must Be Crazy." F2 Brown Hall. (Also Thurs., April 23, same time, Brown.)
Wednesday, April 22 7 p.m. WU Filmboard Series, "The Gods Must Be Crazy." F2 Brown Hall. (Also Thurs., April 23, same time, Brown.)
Thursday, April 23 7 p.m. Student Dance Concert. Wagner House. For more info., call 889-4523.
Friday, April 17 7 p.m. "Annie Hall." F2 Brown Hall. (Also Sat., April 18, same time, and Sun., April 19, at 8 p.m. Brown.)
Monday, April 20 11 a.m. Golf, Washington Barrington Bear Classic Normandy Park.
Tuesday, April 21 5:30 p.m. Men's Tennis vs. Lewis and Clark Community College. 900 S. Taylor Ave.
Wednesday, April 22 9 a.m. WU Mixed Choir Concert. Graham Chapel.
Thursday, April 23 4 p.m. Dept. of Chemistry Seminar, "Char- acterization of Reduced Porphyrins Via EPR and Infrared Raman Spectroscopy." Alexander Gottschalk, prof. of diagnostic radiology and biochemistry, Tulane University. 311 McMillen.
4 p.m. WU Smoking Cessation Clinic. 3rd floor aud., CID Clinics and Research Bldg. For more info., call 889-4523.
Friday, April 24 4 p.m. Dept. of Mathematics Geometry Literature Lecture, "Distin- guished Visiting Professor." Thomas Menkhaus, prof. of literature and languages, Webster U. 7 p.m. WU Smoking Cessation Clinic. 3rd floor aud., CID Clinics and Research Bldg.
5:30 p.m. Men's Tennis vs. Rhodod College. Kell Field.
5 p.m. Men's Tennis, WU vs. Jefferson Community College. 900 S. Taylor Ave.
5 p.m. Men's and Women's Track and Field, WU Invitational. Francis Field.
MISCELLANY
Friday, April 17 6-8 p.m. Black Law Students Alumni Reception. Room 201. For more info., call the law school at 889-6400.
Saturday, April 18 9 a.m. Fourth Annual Children's Hospital 5K Run and One-Mile Fun Run. Start in front of the hospital. 400 S. Kingshighway. The registration fee is $5. For more info., call 444-6202.
1-3 p.m. Women's Society of Washington University International Children's Easter Egg Hunt. Open to children of International students, researchers and faculty members. St. Louis International House, 6706 Forsyth Blvd. Reservations are required. Call 889-5190 by April 16.
Monday, April 20 5:30-7 p.m. WU Smoking Cessation Clinic. The non-profit seven-session program is spon- sored by the National Cancer Institute in association with the Missouri Department of Health and the American Lung Association. Although the program is non-profit, a $40 deposit is re- quired, which is returned at the end of the pro- gram. 115 Eads. For more info., call 889-6527.
Calendar Deadline The deadline to submit items for the May -3/6 calendar of the Washington University Record is April 23. Items must be typed and not alter- native events, fees, and names are not acceptable. Items must be submitted by Industry, include speaker's name and telephone number. Address items to King McElroy, calendar editor, Box 8070.