J<sup>r</sup> William Beaumont
My Dear Sir.

Since I notified Alexis, that he should pay his own way to St Louis, he has been trying to raise the wind - but to no purpose. He called several times - and finally came yesterday with his wife, for the purpose of telling me, that he could not leave without your assistance. They are ready to start at once. If you think proper to send them from 30 to 50 Dollars - they will start. He and family are very poor, and without money they cannot even get to Montreal. Should you decide on sending them means, you ought to do so at once - so that they could get to you before the winter sets in.

Yours very truly
William Clouston
